

Kolten Barlow

Kolten Barlow, from Simla Colorado not only enjoys rodeo as one of his favorite sports, but he also competes in his other favorite sport, offroad motorcycle racing. Offroad is vastly different than motocross. Offroad entails racing for up to 100 miles across rugged single track trail, and not on a track. A typical race can last from 2 to 5 hours depending on terrain and distance!

He had a custom set of graphics made for him this year to put on his 2009 KTM 85sx race bike. We had the Little Britches logo placed on the front fork guards, as well as on top of the rear fender!!

It is truly a "one of a kind" offroad bike, as we are not aware of anyone else in the US that has these on his bike!!

Kolten has finished 2nd overall in the Rocky Mountain Enduro Circuit Jr. Series 65cc Class in 2009 and 2010, and is currently preparing to begin his 2011 season competing in the 85cc Class. This season will take him to Arizona, Texas, Wyoming and Nebraska!
