

Hello,

For those of you who don't know me, my name is Shelby LeeAnn Kadrovich I am eight-teen years old. I am currently a pre. Vet. Student at Louisiana Tech University in Ruston, La. On July 31, 2009 I was crowned Miss NLBRA 2010. Needless to say I was slightly excited, okay I was SUPER excited!

Nationals was a wonderful experience, I had so much support from my family. Although, when a contestant from Louisiana says they had family support it means more than you think. When I say family I mean my rodeo family this includes my immediate family as well as the Aunts, uncles, moms, dads, brothers, and sisters god forgot to give us. Although, its okay that he forgot because we are family anyways.

I met so many friendly faces in Pueblo, Co. and was asked many funny questions about my unique home state. I am looking forward to sending a long year on the road with Kinzie, and Shayne, I know it will never be a dull moment with these two around. I have already noticed well all love to have a good time, eat good food, and meet new people, I know we will have an amazing year.

Well, in Louisiana NLBRA is kicking back up and I know competition is going to be stiff this year. I wish everyone the best of luck as rodeo season starts back up, oh and we can't forget about school too.
