

Hello Little Britches,

Welcome to 2010! I hope everyone has had a wonderful and safe Christmas and New Year. Is everyone ready to thaw out and get back to rodeo? I know I am.

As your 2010 Little Wrangler Princess I was able to help represent the NLBRA at the Miss Rodeo America Pageant in Las Vegas, it was great, I met several contestants as well as Miss Rodeo Canada. I got to hang out with Shelby and Kenzie, our queen and princess and to see my very first NFR. I want to send out a Little Britches "Way to Go!" to the newly crowned 2010 Miss Rodeo America Miss Kelli Jackson of Mississippi.

I am headed back to visit the Mid South Little Britches again this weekend and I am looking forward to seeing my new friends again. I am very glad that they have an indoor arena! I also hope to make my first visit to the Booster Club LBR of Louisiana at the end of the month.

I am to meet back up the NLBRA royalty at the January WESA Market again in mid-January and I can't wait. I hope there is snow in Denver, being from Arkansas we rarely get more than a dusting of snow.

Does any of this sound fun? If you love to meet new people in the world of rodeo and have one amazingly positive experience after another I would like to encourage any and all Little Wrangler girls to consider running for Little Wrangler Princess during the 2010 NLBRA Finals. If you would like to ask any questions or just visit with me and my mom about our great time so far this year please feel free to e-mail us at info@nlbra.com.

Until next time everyone, remember to thank those who make our rodeos possible and as my friend Spanky Mason likes to say "Rodeo Mach 4 with your hair on fire."

God Bless,

Shayne Harrell
